Continuous Disclosure and Communications Policy

1 INTRODUCTION, APPLICATION AND PURPOSE

1.1 PURPOSE OF POLICY

As a listed entity on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX), AusNet Services is required to comply with continuous disclosure obligations under the Corporations Act and ASX Listing Rules (Listing Rules).

The purpose of this Policy is to set out AusNet Services' practice in relation to continuous disclosure, including:

- establishing procedures relating to compliance with continuous disclosure obligations under the Corporations Act and Listing Rules;
- identifying materially price sensitive information;
- ensuring that company announcements are presented in an accurate, clear, balanced and objective manner that allows investors to assess the impact of the information when making investment decisions;
- safeguarding the confidentiality of corporate information to avoid premature disclosure which could misinform or mislead the market;
- establishing roles and responsibilities for ensuring compliance with continuous disclosure obligations and this Policy; and
- outlining AusNet Services' policy for communication with its shareholders and the investment community.

Continuous Disclosure Guidelines have been established to assist Staff understand and comply with AusNet Services' continuous disclosure obligations (Disclosure Guidelines).

1.2 APPLICATION OF POLICY

This Policy applies to all directors, employees and contractors of AusNet Services (Staff).

2 CONTINUOUS DISCLOSURE OBLIGATIONS

2.1 DISCLOSURE POLICY

AusNet Services will, subject to the exceptions set out in the Listing Rules, immediately notify the market of any information of which AusNet Services becomes aware, concerning AusNet Services:

- that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of any securities issued by AusNet Services; or
- would influence persons who commonly invest in securities in deciding whether to buy or sell AusNet Services securities, (collectively Price Sensitive Information).

"Immediately" means doing something as quickly as possible in the circumstances, without deferring, postponing or putting it off to a later time.

Materiality is assessed using measures appropriate to AusNet Services and having regard to the examples given by the ASX in ASX Listing Rule 3.1 and ASX Guidance Note 8.

Continuous Disclosure and Communications Policy

Further guidance on materiality is provided in the Disclosure Guidelines, including examples of information that may require disclosure. In addition, the Disclosure Guidelines cover the exceptions in the Listing Rules which, if applicable, may not require disclosure of Price Sensitive Information.

2.2 INFORM ASX FIRST

AusNet Services will not release any information publicly that is required to be disclosed to the ASX until AusNet Services has received formal confirmation of its release to the market by the ASX, unless otherwise permitted by the ASX Listing Rules. Information must not be given to the media before it is given to the ASX, even on an embargoed basis.

2.3 SPECULATION AND RUMOURS

Generally, AusNet Services will not respond to market speculation or rumours unless a response is required by law or the ASX.

2.4 FALSE MARKET

If the ASX considers that there is, or is likely to be, a false market in AusNet Services securities and asks AusNet Services to give it information to correct or prevent a false market, AusNet Services must give the ASX the information needed to correct or prevent the false market.

2.5 TRADING HALTS

If deemed appropriate, the Disclosure Committee may consider requesting a trading halt from the ASX to ensure orderly trading in AusNet Services securities and to manage disclosure issues, in accordance with the procedures contained in the Disclosure Guidelines.

2.6 BREACHES

Failure to comply with the disclosure obligations in this Policy may lead to a breach of the Corporations Act or Listing Rules and to personal penalties for directors and officers.

3 ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES3.1 DISCLOSURE OFFICER

The Board has appointed the Company Secretary as the Disclosure Officer. In the absence of the Company Secretary, the General Counsel will be the Disclosure Officer.

Responsibilities of the Disclosure Officer include:

- (a) liaising with the ASX in relation to continuous disclosure issues, including lodgement of approved announcements and co-ordinating the response to any ASX price query;
- (b) ensuring that all announcements and trading halts have been approved in accordance with this Policy and the Disclosure Guidelines prior to lodgement with the ASX;
- (c) reviewing potentially Price Sensitive Information that has been notified and considering promptly and without delay whether it warrants referral to the Disclosure Committee;
- (d) convening meetings of the Disclosure Committee;

Continuous Disclosure and Communications Policy
